INAUGURATION DAY

MIND TREE SCHOOL
Inaugurated by
Hon'ble Sh. Som Parkash, IAS
Chief Parliamentary Secretary,
Local Bodies, Govt. of Punjab
On March 26, 2013

March 26 was a very eventful day for the residents of Kharar city and equally so in the field of education as in the evening of this day the inaugural lamp of MIND TREE SCHOOL was formally lit by Sh. Som Parkash, IAS, Chief Parliamentary Secy. Local Bodies, Punjab. Host of other dignitaries and eminent educationists were also present to guide and encourage the MIND TREE family..

A venture of Bulls Eye Chandigarh, MIND TREE SCHOOL has already created a niche for itself in Ambala and is a definite force in taking education to new level. Now Mind Tree at Kharar shall provide the children best possible holistic learning environment and parents the pride of choosing good school for their ward. The enthusiasm of the parents who had enrolled their children was very evident in their unfazed smiles during the inauguration. We thank each one of them for being with us and we value their trust reposed in our system.

April 13, 2013: 'PARICHAY' - The Orientation Day:

As the merry March moved into April we had our Orientation programme on April 13 for the parents to introduce them to our teaching and imparting paradigm and also sharing with them that child's education is a complete hand holding with equal responsibility. The Kindergarten parents were introduced to KgPro a unique pedagogy that is time tested and skill based extensively dedicated to develop observation, comprehension and reading skills of the child.

April 15, 2013: First Working Day:

'ABHYUDAYA' was the first working day of MIND TREESCHOOL at Kharar and the entire building resounded with some laughing, some cheering, some smiling, some crying too. Anxious parents who were leaving their precious pearls for the first time in school were made comfortable and helped by our poised and trained teachers who deftly and diligently took up their duties and made the children comfortable. The school timetable for academics and activities was implemented from day one and all along we have been having various activities and workshops for our children and teachers.

KINDERGARTEN WING

April 27, 2013: Trip to City Park - Nursery:

School trip was planned for outdoors where our Kindergarten children were taken to City park for a picnic and the children enjoyed immensely.

May 03, 2013: 50 Metre Race - Nursery:

Our little angels who joined us and began their journey of education at MIND TREE are so much full of fun and joy with their sweet words and innocent questions. When they were quite settled into the routine they had first formal competition and results are as follows:

1st	2nd	3rd
Sartaj Singh	Harpita	Harshpreet Singh

May 10, 2013: Relay Race - LKG:

May 15, 2013: Self Introduction Competition - UKG:

We at Mind Tree School firmly believe that a child must be able to communicate and introduce himself naturally and properly without hesitation. The children were very confident when they came individually on the stage and introduced themselves. It was quite an achievement as there was a tie at every position. The winners were:

1st	2nd	3rd
Rehaan Sharma, Kulpreet kaur	Palakjeet Kaur, Yashkirat Kaur	Jasleen Kaur, Sanvi Rathour

May 17, 2013: Colouring Competition - LKG:

Colouring has a very welcome response with children as they are not in the limitations of thoughts and they can fill colours of their choice anywhere they want. It was amazing sight to see our lil Anish Kapoors at work and some of them stood apart. The winners were:

1st	2nd	3rd
Gurveen Kaur	Jasleen Kaur	Manya Sood

May 18, 2013: Visit to Fire Station - LKG and UKG:

Our LKG and UKG children had a great time visiting the fire station and were very surprised and awestruck to learn about the fire engine, way of filling water, operating it and the fire suits etc. Indeed it was very good learning experience as they had lots of stories to tell when they came back and their excitement was truly justified.

PRIMARY WING

April 25, 2013: Calligraphy Competition - Grade I:

Calligraphy is an artistic way of presenting the text and children also get to present their talent in different font other than their regular writing. The results are:

1st	2nd	3rd
Gaurisha Kaushal	Prakriti Sharma	---

April 26, 2013: Calligraphy Competition - Grade II & III:

Taken from the Greek words 'kalos' meaning beauty and 'graphe' meaning writing is a visual art related to writing. It flourishes in forms of wedding and event invitations and original hand written designs. So our children at school got a chance to showcase their talent and the winners were:

1st	2nd	3rd
Yashpreet Kaur - II	Shreya Varshney - II	---
Jasnoor Kaur - III	Aarusha Arora - III	---

April 27, 2013: Trip to the Post Office - Grade I, II & III:

While Grade I, II & III went to the post office and the children were made aware of the letter's journey to its destination, they also learnt about the different types of letters and stamps and how the overall system works. Children were introduced to the postman and his uniform and his duties.

April 29, 2013: Spelling Bee Competition - Grade I:

Core competency of any language is good spellings and when taught at a young age the command over the language is strongly developed. The winners for Spelling Bee competition are:

1st	2nd	3rd
Gaurisha Kaushal	Prakriti Sharma	---

April 29, 2013: One Legged Race - Grade II & III:

Walking is always fun and a very good exercise but hopping on one leg cannot be very easy for everyone. Results of one legged race for Grade II and III are as follows:

1st	2nd	3rd
Drishti Sharma - II	Yashpreet Kaur - II	---
Jasnoor Kaur - III Parampal Singh - III	Aarusha Arora - III Gurraj Singh - III	---

May 02, 2013: Creative Drawing Competition - Grade I:

Children can really surprise us with their thoughts when they are given an opportunity to colour their thoughts. The winners of Creative Drawing competition are:

1st	2nd	3rd
Gaurisha Kaushal	Prakriti Sharma	---

May 03, 2013: Creative Drawing Competition - Grade II & III:

Art is a field of most lively and breathtakingly beautiful ideas and imagination where an artist justifies his colours, designs and patterns making it a uphill task to assess the task but still with lots of efforts we have following winners:

1st	2nd	3rd
Shreya Varshney - II	Rajmeet Kaur - II	---
Jasnoor Kaur - III	Sukhmanpreet Singh - III	---

May 09, 2013: Make the Match Race - Grade I:

Competing is always challenging and if it's linked with their knowledge then it's not only fun filled but also gives a chance to assess the child better. The vowels were linked to the objects and they had to collect the objects associated to their vowels.

1st	2nd	3rd
Akshita	Gaurisha Kaushal	---

May 10, 2013: Devotional Song Competition - Grade II & III:

May 15, 2013: Puppet Show:

Mr. Subasis Neogi who is ardent Puppet lover and has been all over the tricity schools to conduct puppet theatre workshops, inciting the young minds to relate to the innocent world of puppets. He strongly believes that the complex skills can be easily managed and acquired with simple puppets. He had presented adaptations from fables and stories in the most fun filled way. The children related very well with the puppets and whole heartedly enjoyed the puppets swaying talking and dancing and even laughing with the children.

May 24, 2013: English Elocution - Grade II & III:

Spoken skills can be best gauged when the children are asked to speak on topic of their choice and interest. For then it is not just prepared but words flow because they are speaking about what they like to speak on or about. It also keeps the speaker and listeners interest trapped as they there is great novelty in the content and ideas pour in freely. The results for English Elocution are as follows:

1st	2nd	3rd
Drishti Sharma - II	Tejveer Singh - II	Shreya Varshney - II
Jasnoor Kaur - III	Aarusha Arora - III	Khushdeep Kaur - III

CELEBRATIONS

May 01, 2013: Labour Day:

To instill right values in the children it's the onerous duty of school as well as the parents and we need to celebrate and make them understand about the importance of everything that they experience around them especially the humanware that is involved in shaping their lives Labour Day was celebrated in the school where the children sang songs recited poems and gave away gifts to the support staff in the school and thanked them for their valuable support. It was indeed a very warm gesture.

May 12, 2013: Mother's Day:

For God could not be everywhere so created Mothers and undoubtedly that unbounded joy and happiness to do something for your mother is immeasurable, the same we all felt when we celebrated Mother's day in school. The children spoke about their mothers, they made cards and took them home and surprised her with their precious drawings.

May 15, 2013: Story Telling Workshop:

Story telling workshop was conducted by Ms. Anuradha, who runs Chandigarh based NGO for theatre and story telling. She has conducted number of workshops for different schools of tri-city. She narrated the stories replete with gestures and mannerisms such that children wanted more and more and very deftly. She picked up a new story evolving it from the previous without breaking the yarn. A complete master indeed she was throughout the session.

A thumb painting workshop was conducted by Mr. Pravin Kedar M.F.A in creative painting from Sir J. J. School of Art, Mumbai. He has been awarded Junior fellowship Ministry of culture New Delhi and Mrs. Ashwini Godbole M.F.A in Graphics from I.K.S. University Khairagarh (C.G) also awardee of Junior Fellowship By Ministry of Culture. They taught the children beautiful designs that they could create with just the thumb. Children enjoyed every moment of it and some of them show cased their talents in most stupendous manner.

EDUCATOR'S CORNER

Learning is an on-going process for everyone at any stage of life. Lots of learning happens when we need to touch young inquisitive minds and want them to do well. Thus it becomes very important that every teacher must be a learner first to guide young minds and is able to convey successfully that, when learning is applied at the right time it always will keep them abreast in all situations. Keeping all such parameters in mind, we had extensive training sessions for our teachers so as to synergize them with the evolving new curriculum and teaching tools.

February 04, 2013: Mr. Atul Gopal B.E. Pune, MBA IIM-C English Resource:

Mr. Atul Gopal B.E. Pune, MBA IIM-C conducted an exhaustive workshop with our teachers, motivating them, inspiring them, making them understand their own potential and also encouraging them to realize the strengths of every child in the class so that very dynamic and action packed atmosphere could be created in the class rooms and children were able to produce desired results.

February 14 to March 20, 2013: Training At Ambala:

MIND TREE SCHOOL, KHARAR had organised an extensive training session for the freshly appointed teachers at our Mind Tree School, Ambala. It was a very exhaustive training session whereby teachers were equipped with the knowledge of handling the new and unique pedagogy. The Intellis team took great care that the teachers were very extensively trained on the product so that they do great justice to the children who would be entrusted in their care and guidance.

April 20, 2013: Ms. Shelly - Content Developer (Research and Analysis Support):

A special session was conducted after a month so that the performance analysis could be discussed and reconstruction of required parameters could be done with new measures for improvisation.

April 27, 2013: Ms Rekha Dhingra Avant - Grade Maths Resource:

Ms Dhingra can teach Maths for hours together and has introduced many strategies and activities to make Maths interesting and do-able, had an extensive training session with the teachers helping them create an accessible and fun filled route to Maths.

May 24, 2013: Ms. Manupriya Minocha - Global Educational Consultant:

A very interactive session on one to one basis was conducted by Ms. Manupriya Minocha for the teachers helping them to understand and evolve as per the emerging patterns. She is an acclaimed Consultant for more than five countries across the globe and has been training and motivating teachers to become the best in the industry. A workshop was held for all the teachers towards the end of the day and Ms. Minocha spoke on the ADHD and how it is important for the teachers to make the children fall in love with their school. She also spoke and guided the teachers that they are doing everything for their growth so dedication and sincerity must be on the highest priority at all times.
