EDUCATORS' CORNER

December 01, 2019: Positive Parenting - Dr. Sohan Singh:

Parenting is a lifelong journey and every parent wants to be role model for their children. But effective parenting is not so easy. All parents need guidance, scientific parenting strategies that will help them to implement their best intentions in an effective manner. As parts of the parents enrichment programme, parents and teachers of Mind Tree IIT Mandi Campus School attended a workshop on positive parenting. The workshop was facilitated by Dr. Sohan Chandel, a renowned psychologist. Dr. Chandel told that to build a strong relationship with the kids parents should spend more time with children, they should know what is going on in their child's life. He stated that as far possible engage them in conversation about what they learned, who their friends are. They should act as friends and come down to their level. He also mentioned that some negative sides of parenting like – pressurization of children to achieve high marks, compare them with others, or spending little time with them create different critical situation in child's life. Life style issues, decision making, disciplining the child, imbibing responsibility, value system all were discussed and parents became enriched. Dr. Chandel concluded the session saying that parents should maintain '3 F' – that is Fair, Firm and Friendly behavior with kids. Many questions, doubts were clarified at the workshop, and it turned out to be a highly interactive session. The activities conducted by the expert made learning experimental and fun too. Parents went back with wonderful takeaways- enriched, motivated and inspired.

December 05 - 07, 2019: ISRO exhibition at IIT Mandi:

Mind Tree IIT Mandi Campus School students visited an exhibition organized by ISRO at IIT Mandi campus.
