April 03, 2017: 'PRICHAY' - The Orientation Day:

All apprehensions were put to rest and the first direct connect between the parents and the teachers for the first session at Mind Tree School, Naraingarh, was established through 'Parichay – The Orientation Programme'. This programme serves as a platform to bring the parents and the school together by informing them about the plans and procedures of the school. The session ended after all the queries by the parents had been answered. The corridors rung with laughter and cheer of the parents and teachers as all inhibitions had been shed and confidence between the two sides had been enhanced.
