October 13, 2017: Hindi Spelling Bee Competition - Grade II & III :

When our spelling is perfect, it's invisible; but when it is flawed, it prompts strong negative association. A piece of writing is well received when it is flawless. Hence, spellings gain paramount importance. To enable our prodigies to be flawless in this area, we organized a HINDI Spelling Bee Competition for them. Kids took it upon themselves to produce a flawless sheet after the test. Congrats, dear Spell Bee Champs!. The winners were:

	1st	2nd	3rd
II	Madhav	Priyanshu	Kanushi
III	Manika	Saaransh Gambhir	Vaidish Rana

October 14, 2017: Yoga Competition - Grade I to III :

Yoga is not a religion. It is a science, science of well being, science of youthfulness, science of integrating body, mind and soul.

With the perspective of exposing students to the benefits of Yoga, Mind Tree School allowed students to participate in 'Haryana State Yoga Sports Championship' which was organized by Yoga Sports Association of Haryana affiliated to Yog Sports Association, India. Children participated as contestants in this championship held at Green Land Public School, Karnal from 14th to 15th October, 2017. In the age group of 5 to 8 year, Madhav and Diya Gupta of Grade-II got 3rd Position with bronze medal. Ayati Garg of Grade-I got participation certificate. They performed all the difficult 'Aasanas' easily. Really, it was a great achievement for our school.

October 27, 2017: Special Assembly on World Students' Day :

Let us sacrifice our today so that our children can have a better tomorrow.

In 2010, the UN decided to mark the importance of 'Missile Man' Dr APJ Abdul Kalam by declaring his birthday as World Students' Day. It was this legendary man's earnest desire to be remembered as a teacher. Students of Grade-II remembered this humble son of India through their enactment and speeches and reminded us of this visionary's dream through their wonderful dance presentation. Various qualities and traits of this great man, worth imbibing, were listed.

October 31, 2017: Special Assembly on Haryana Day :

Haryana, the land of rustic beauty, is referred to as the cradle of Indus Valley and Vedic Civilization that flourished at the banks of the river Saraswati . Haryana celebrated 51 years of its existence on 1st November 2017. It was celebrated in our school too. Students of Grade-I presented a dance performance on the theme 'Save Girl Child'.

November 17, 2017: English Speech Competition - Grade I :

Speech is power: Speech is to persuade, to convert, to compel.

Students understand a thing well if they infer it on their own and link it to their own experiences. The Elocution Competition was a ready platform which taught them to use mobiles and computers in the correct manner .This event helped them realise the reason behind constant worries of parents about children being hooked onto mobiles. The students spoke unabated on the bane and boon of the mobile apps. The best speakers were:

	1st	2nd	3rd
	Anirudh Budhiraja	Riya	Garvit Budhiraja

November 17, 2017: Wiggle Worm Race - Grade I :

Your body can stand almost anything. It's your mind that you have to convince.

Physical fitness is one of the most important elements for leading a healthy life. A 'Wiggle Worm Race' was organized to enhance the true spirit of sportsmanship. The students participated with great enthusiasm and joy. In that race, the students had to reach the finishing line by creeping swiftly like a worm. They put their best shoulder forward to win the race. It was a fun-filled activity. The winners were:

	1st	2nd	3rd
	Ayati Garg Pratham Bakshi	Akula Dilvansh	Niharika Rana Kartik Dhiman

November 17, 2017: English Grammar Quiz - Grade II & III :

Learning grammar helps one to master the nuances of English language.

To encourage competitive aspect and the comprehension of English Language, one such initiative was the 'English Grammar Quiz'. The quiz had many exciting rounds and the students were alert and ambitious to excel in their given pursuit. This competition played an important role in increasing the comprehension of English language among the students. The winners were:

December 01, 2017: Special Assembly on Eid-e-Milad :

Eid-e-Milad is here and it's time to celebrate.

'Eid-e-Milad' is the name used to mark the birthday of Islamic Prophet Mohammad and his death anniversary. It is time to remember the teachings of the Prophet and follow the mission of the Prophet for which he dedicated his whole life. To spread the bond of brotherhood and compassion in children, Eid-e-Milad was celebrated on 1st December, 2017. Little kids performed delightfully and sang melodiously. Their coordination was worth seeing. In a subtle way, they spread a message of sacrificing things through which one can bring smile on others' face.

December 01, 2017: English Word-Building Competition - Grade I :

Vocabulary is a matter of word-building as well as word using.

To enhance the knowledge of the students to form new words, a 'Word Building Competition' was organised which is alternative to traditional random memorization of words. Such activities are fun, innovative and interesting enough to keep the students engaged with words and help them build vocabulary and improve spellings. It was a nail-biting competition as the students showed amazing talent while building innovative words. The winners were:

December 01, 2017: English Spelling Bee Competition - Grade II & III:

You are an 'Un-Believable Speller.

We don't just borrow words; on occasion, English outshines other languages as it has continuously adopted new vocabulary from other languages. To enrich the vocab-bank of the students, an 'English Spelling Bee Competition' was held for Grade-II and III. The competition made students aware of spellings and the usage of many unfamiliar words. It was a wonderful learning experience for the students as it enriched their vocab-bank. The best scorers were:

II	Kanushi, Madhav and Avni
III	Saaransh Gambhir and Divyansh Gupta

December 07, 2017: Creative Drawing Competition - Grade I :

Drawing is an exercise for a restless imagination.

Students love to play with colours and paint their own world of imagination. Creative Drawing Competition on the topic 'A Scene at Zoo' was organized to explore and encourage creativity in children and offer them a platform to show their skill in drawing and colouring. Zoo, as seen through their eyes, was a treat to view. The winners were:

1st	2nd	3rd
Anirudh Budhiraja	Loveleen Kaur	Dilvansh

December 08, 2017: Special Assembly on Human Right Day :

Let's stand up for equality, justice and human dignity.

Human rights gain immense importance in today's world. With evil forces like terrorism, drugs, violence and bloodshed raising their ugly heads, it is only implementation of these rights in true spirit that the world can become a safer place. The students of Grade-1 highlighted the importance of human rights through their inspirational speech and a skit on child labour.

December 14, 2017: Special Assembly on National Energy Conservation Day :

Energy conserved is Life preserved.

'National Energy Conservation Day' is celebrated on 14th December to highlight the importance of energy consumption and its scarcity and impact on sustainability of global ecosystem. Mind Tree School also realized its importance and organised a special assembly in which students gave their best efforts to create awareness among all by performing skits and songs. Besides this, students performed a small skit to showcase the sacrifices made by others for what we are today.

December 15, 2017: G.K. Quiz Competition - Grade I :

The purpose of a quiz is to make sure that everyone is on the same page.

Encouraging students to become bookworms is one thing that we, at Mind Tree, strongly detest. Making our students holistic individuals is our mission. For this, 'G.K. Quiz' was held for grade I. It was conducted with interesting and awesome rounds in which children participated with great zeal. The winners who cleared all the rounds

1st	2nd	3rd
Riya	Navya Goyal	Loveleen Kaur

December 15, 2017: Newspaper Race - Grade I :

A smooth race never makes a skilful race.

Race plays a defining role in a person's life trajectory, experiences and outcomes. So Mind Tree School organised an exciting Newspaper Race for Grade-I which involved stepping on one paper and then placing the second piece in front and stepping on it and so on. The students enjoyed the race as participants as well as the audience. Their faces sparkled with joy as they reached the finishing line. The winners were:

Celebration & Jubilation

October 12 & 13, 2017: 100 Days Celebration:

100 days of learning, 100 days of fun, 100 days of work and play, aren't we lucky one?

One of the most anxiously awaited occasions in our school celebrations was 100 Days. The 100 Days programme was a perfect platform for our shining stars to show what they had learnt till then through an array of entertaining programmes. Director Mr. Deepak Mongia and Mrs. Neelam Ohri were the esteemed 'Guests of Honour'. Among other dignitaries present were Mr. Krishan Aggarwal, Mr. Sanjay Dang and Mr. Manish Aggarwal, members of the School Management. Principal, Ms. Pushpa Sharma heartily welcomed the eminent guests. The programme was conducted for kindergarten classes in three slots : Nursery, LKG and UKG. It included number of songs, rhymes, rapid-fire round and reading section, presented by little champs which showcased their cognitive development. Nursery kids exhibited their efficiency in recognition of phonic sounds. They also successfully gave the answer of all theme questions. LKG and UKG kids were full of confidence; they were spontaneous enough to go through Rapid Fire round and reading of three-letter words and sentences as per their grades. This thematic show of talent, co-ordination, discipline and organization was the essence of the day. Clapping continued for long by the audience. Parents were delighted and stunned by their tiny tots' performances. They all applauded and praised the efforts and hard work of teachers by seeing the drastic change in their little ones within these 100

November 14, 2017: Children's Day Celebration :

'There is no trust more sacred than the one the world holds with children. There is no duty more important than ensuring that they grow on peace and happiness.' - Jawaharlal Nehru

We celebrated Children's Day with great joy and jubilation. A special assembly was presented by all the teachers to mark the occasion. The programme began with a prayer followed by dance performances and skit on- TOTO CHAN 's story by the teachers and the Principal. The continuous applause after each performance exhibited the love, the children had for their teachers. We wished them and blessed them for a bright future. Children savoured crunchy bites of snacks, sugar candy and cake as a token of love that were gifted by the management.
