August 25, 2026: Unlocking Imagination: A Three-Day Literary Celebration:

From Duster and Love Like That to Vee Loved Garlic, Machher Jhol and Akela, every session opened a new window into imagination, emotions and perspectives. Students explored illustrations, characters, feelings, viewpoints and the deeper meanings woven into each story. They listened, questioned, reflected and discovered that a story can often express much more than what is written. The sessions reminded us that books do more than just fostering a love for reading—they help shape compassionate minds and kinder hearts.
