We are delighted to share that Sanskruti Sankar — a Drawing, Painting and Installation Exhibition along with a Book Launch Ceremony was held from 27th June to 3rd July 2025 at Mind Tree School, Ambala.

The theme of the event was "Yellow my self @ Pune" — a vibrant celebration of expression, imagination and identity. The exhibition was inaugurated by the renowned artist Shri Prabhakar Kolte.

The event also featured a National Printmaking Camp which saw participation from celebrated artists across India, including Tejaswini Sonawane (Bengaluru), Leticia, Satyam Acharya, Swapnesh Walangkar (Goa), Rahul Dhiman (Chandigarh), Kumar Missal (Mumbai), Raja Boroo (Assam) and Chering Negi (Solun).

Their works ranging from bold printmaking to profound installations infused the exhibition space with diverse perspectives, sensibilities and artistic brilliance.

The exhibition also showcased the artwork of 25 artists from Pune, a city renowned as the cultural capital of Maharashtra. Its objective was to encourage emerging artists from Pune while also exposing our students to diverse forms of visual art.

The color yellow formed the core of the exhibition symbolizing warmth and vitality, bringing light and life to every creation. The exhibition was curated by Shri Mangesh Kale, a noted poet, writer and editor.

The event was graced by the presence of Prof. Prabhakar Kolte, a pioneer of Indian abstract art, who also unveiled the book "Vilay" written by Shri Abhishek Kashyap.

The entire event was conceptualised, coordinated and curated by Shri Mohan Shingne.
