April 03, 2017: 'PARICHAY' - The Orientation Day:

All apprehensions were put to rest and the first direct connect between the parents and the teachers for the new session, was established through 'Parichay – The Orientation Programme'. This programme serves as a platform to bring the parents and the school together by informing them about the plans and procedures of the school. The session ended after all the queries by the parents had been answered. The corridors rung with laughter and cheer of the parents and teachers as all inhibitions had been shed and confidence between the two sides had been enhanced.

May 09, 2017: Special Assembly on Budh Purnima:

Budh Purnima is a Buddhist festival that commemorates the birth of Lord Buddha. It falls on the day of the Full moon during Vesak or May month. According to the Buddhist legend, his wife Yashodhara, his first disciple Ananda, his charioteer Channa, and the horse Kantaka on which he renounced his kingdom to 'find some answers to life', were all born on this sacred day. Grade-1 kids presented a skit "Siddhartha and the Swan", based on the life and teachings of Lord Buddha. Moral of the play was "Kindness to Animals." The enactment was mesmerising and moved everybody to tears. The essence of Lord Buddha's life and teachings was exhibited through the play quite clearly. The audience present was all praise for the young actors.

May 12, 2017: Special Assembly on Mother's Day :

Mother's Day is a celebration of bond of love and affection between a mother and a child and it celebrates the spirit of motherhood. Bringing up a child and helping him or her to grow into a responsible adult is considered the essence of motherhood. It is a challenge in itself, as she has to go through countless hardships in the process. Mother's Day is an occasion where the child and society remembers and acknowledges the effort that goes into rearing a child. This is a special day for children as well as the mothers and they get an opportunity to relish the everlasting bond of love and affection between them. Cards were made by the children of Grade I in order to show appreciation and love for their mothers. The children also gave a dance performance on the occasion.
