The festival of Raksha Bandhan fostered harmony among the young Mind Treeans. The celebration started with songs, skits and dances and ended with the wrists of brothers adorned with beautiful Rakhies tied by their sisters.

August 3, 2012: Investiture Ceremony of Junior Council:

After a stiff selection procedure, the nominated council members marched into the auditorium with pride. Their demeanour made it amply clear that they knew the daunting task awaiting them. The piping-in ceremony was conducted by our honourable Principal Ma'am. The council members stood with great humility and grace. Their clarity of thought regarding their aim in life motivated their peers too.

August 9, 2012: Janmashtami Celebration:

The birthday of the eighth incarnation of Lord Vishnu "Krishna", was celebrated with full gaiety. The children were made aware of the message given by Lord Krishna and also of the significance of this festival. Speeches, dances and enactment of Lord Krishna's birth and childhood laced the celebration.

August 9, 2012: Short Speech on National Symbols & Freedom Fighters-Grade I - III:

"You don't preserve it, if you don't earn it" is a well known fact and keeping this in mind, short speeches were organized on "Freedom-Fighters". Infusing patriotism and respect for their National Symbols was the motive of this competition. The students exhibited their in-depth knowledge. The speakers and the audience subliminally learnt the ideologies of our "Freedom Fighters". The results were:

August 06, 2012: Investiture Ceremony:

"Achievements are toilsome, when awarded they are worth it". Same was witnessed during the Investiture Ceremony. Well deserving children were selected as the council members. Nitin was selected the "Head Boy" and Ritika the "Head Girl" for their outstanding performance and discipline. This was followed by piping-in ceremony. It is marked as an important day of the school as it witnessed a new batch of students taking over responsibilities of the school, and they promised to render them with full zeal and commitment.

66th Independence Day Celebrated

Mind Tree School celebrated the 66th Independence Day with great enthusiasm and zeal. The song of "Vande Matram" and energy of "Maa Tujhe Salam" resonated in the corridors of the school. It filled each one with the fervour of patriotic feelings. Nationalism was felt to its core. All the four houses presented skit and musical plays while judo and gymnastics skills were displayed with perfection.

Trustee member Mr. Sanjay Kumar graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and took the salute.

August 15, 2012: Story Boards Created under Workshop - Grade - VI:

Awesome were the flash cards made by VI Graders and interesting were their ideas. Under the supervision of CEVA organization and expert guidance of it's members - Harleen, Sheetal Sharma, Sarita Bhargav, Subasheesh Neogi and Rajni Bhatia, students of grade VI visualized their ideas in the form of impressive story - boards. It was exciting for the parents to see their children speak and perform the stories along with the illustrations they had made in support of their storyline. Confidence could be seen boosted with each word of praise they got. They surprised everyone with the store of ideas revealed.

Humour lightens the atmosphere and fills the senses with pleasure. Students of Grade VI & VII brought forth hilarious presentations kindling everybody's emotions and making them enjoy the fun. The winners of the competition were:
