November 25,2011:CollageMaking-Grade I:

Man is a social animal, so he cannot live in isolation. To learn to serve in society one needs to be apt at team working and cooperation. These two aims were taken care of when a collage making activity for grade I was organized. The students collectively worked in groups to bring out beautiful collages on the themes assigned to them. Their efforts were appreciated by one and all and their creations were displayed in their respective classrooms.

November26, 2011:English StoryNarration Competition- Gradell &III:

Stories woven around fantasy, adventure, reality and horror have impressed one and all since times immemorial. Kids are avid listeners of stories and enjoy them the most. The students presented soulful narrations and got totally involved. Their stories captivated and enraptured the audience. Undoubtedly, the competition brought out the hidden capabilities of the children and prepared them for times to come.

December23,2011:ChristmasDayCelebration:

India is a land of diverse faiths but one belief .This was justified by the kids of Mind Tree who celebrated Christmas whole heartedly. Students from all grades joyously sang carols, danced to jingle bells and spoke on the relevance of the festival of Christmas. They squealed with delight when Santa arrived bringing sweets and gifts for them. In the end, our worthy Principal Ms. Neelam Ohri wished a Merry Christmas to one and all.

December27,2011:SeeandSpeak-Gradel:

We, at Mind Tree, do not go by rote learning but encourage learning through comprehension. Our endeavour is justified by our kids through various competitions held at regular intervals. On 27th December, 2011 a See and Speak Competition was held for the students of Grade - I. The students were randomly handed out objects on which they spoke for about a minute. This competition tested their presence of mind and speaking skills. It was heartening to see the confidence and demeanor of the students. The results of the competition are:

ENACTMENT ON WILDLIFE PROTECTION

Ever alert on conservation themes, Grade - V children enacted a play related to the same. Children dressed up as animals brought forth the plight of these wild beasts. The act showed how human beings have taken away the homes of these wild animals and rendered them homeless. It was also humorously shown how this action will boomerang on humans themselves. Audience appreciated the antics of the frolicking animals. The enactment evoked much laughter and guffaws, but certainly nailed the point home.

December 21, 2011: Card Making Competition: With the festive spirit all around a Card Making Competition was held keeping in tune with the cheerful atmosphere. Children did not disappoint in their efforts and enthusiasm. Colourful ribbons, glitters, cotton flakes, bells, ferns etc adorned the glittering cards on display. Lovely messages flashed while many a Santas popped out from the cards. The galaxy of cards on display was a sight to behold. The lucky ones who won prizes from Santa Claus's bag of goodies are:

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

There was a chill in the air coupled with a heady mix of merry making and cheerful spirits on the eve of Christmas. Choir groups kept in tune with the Christmas gaiety and sang Christmas carols with the whole school joining in. Children were also apprised of the importance of this festival besides enjoyment. Talks were given by the students. Principal Ms. Sudha Mathur guided the children to spread love and feeling of brotherhood on Christmas.

PROUD ACHIEVERS

HARSIMRAN KAUR (VII)

It was indeed a proud moment for Mind Tree School when Harsimran Kaur of Grade VII won the second prize in the Inter School Recitation Competition held at P.K.R. Jain School. Her self-composed poem 'Mera Bharat Mahaan' spoken with fiery fervour made quite an impression and had the audience on the edge of their seats. Congratulations!!

SIDDAK SINGH DHALI WAL (VI-A)

Siddak was a confidence personified as he held the audience spell bound with the recitation of 'Nature Vs Creature' - a self-composed poem. He unfolded layer after layer of man's degradation of nature. Powerful and lyrical verses in his rich baritone won him the second prize in Inter School Recitation Competition held at P.K.R. Jain School. Well done boy!!

SEHAJ ALAGH (VI-B)

Sehaj Alagh of Grade VI-B brought laurels to the school when he won the first prize in the National Painting Competition in 9-12 yrs age group on 30-9-11. He was honoured by the D.C.'s wife on 14th November on the occasion of Bal Divas. Meticulous and organized in every endeavour this young artist will surely go along way.
